

Air1 means so much to me. It's the only place i can hear, good, uplifting music and talk in a way that appeals to me, a 22 year old. if Air1 was taken away, it would be a great lose for the community, because there are no other religious/christian stations that young people/students will listen to and enjoy. please don't take it away.